Experience and Insights in the Resolution of Difficult Divorce Matters

Tough but Fair. Yavitz & Levey believe in responsible, conscientious advocacy in representing clients. Our attorneys have extensive experience in matrimonial and Family Law, including Pre Marital Agreements, with an individualized personal approach. We emphasize protecting the client's children, home, finances, business, and future.

David B. Yavitz has often been referred to as being a "Lawyer's Lawyer," often being called upon by other lawyers when they have questions concerning legal issues and are looking for unique solutions or to collaborate and provide additional legal expertise in complex Family Law cases. Having practiced Family Law for more than 40 years, Mr. Yavitz can often provide unique perspectives, experience and insights in the resolution of difficult divorce matters. He has formerly served as the Chairman of the Illinois State Bar Association Family Law Section Counsel and Committee on Legal Technology and the Chicago Bar Association Matrimonial Law Committee.

Ross S. Levey is known for his calm, level-headed approach in advocating for his clients. Since law school, 100% of his practice has been devoted to the area of Family Law. Ross is currently the Chairman of the Illinois State Bar Association Family Law Section Counsel and previously served as the section's Newsletter Editor as well as on the ISBA's Committee on Electronic Research.

David and Ross are fellows of the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers. David has lectured for the ISBA the Illinois CPA Society, the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers, American Medical Association, the Illinois Institute of Continuing Legal Education and other professional groups. Ross has lectured at "Divorce University," for The Lilac Tree, as well as speaking at other continuing legal education programs.

Family Law is more than "custody" or "equitable division." Family Law includes the emotion that goes along with the life-changing events involved in the dissolution of marriage process. Yavitz & Levey, LLP is dedicated to serving the best interests of the family.
